

WIESENTHAL INTERNATIONAL ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP

be INSPIRED to assume RESPONSIBILITY for the future

Applications are now open for the Wiesenthal Center's Summer 2024 International Advocacy Internship. Modeled after its highly successful sister program, the Wiesenthal Government Advocacy Internship, this program will introduce selected participants to the mechanics of international policy making and development of next generation communal leaders who can have a true impact on that stage. The program will be based in New York City and open to all college and graduate level students.

Wiesenthal International Advocacy Interns will:

- ▶ Receive hands-on experience through internship placements in the office of national consulates, national U.N. missions, and international organizations.
- ▶ Participate in weekly intensive workshops with experts in the international areas such as consular officials, to lobbyists, elected officials and Jewish communal leaders to develop the skills necessary to become effective activists and advocates.
- ▶ Be partnered with mentors who shape international policy decisions and actions to gain insight from their guidance and insider perspective.
- ▶ Receive a stipend of $1,500 upon completion of the program.
