

If YOU SAVE ONE LIFE

A SURVIVOR'S MEMOIR

EVA BROWN
WITH THOMAS FIELDS-MEYER

THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE AND THE SIMON WIESENTHAL CENTER LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES PRESENT:

IF YOU SAVE ONE LIFE

A Survivor's Memoir

AN AFTERNOON WITH AUTHOR AND SURVIVOR EVA BROWN IN CONVERSATION WITH CO-AUTHOR AND VETERAN JOURNALIST THOMAS FIELDS-MEYER

"You have left an everlasting and important legacy for the six million people who had no voice during the Holocaust and a reminder to future generations that championing tolerance, justice and social change are everyone's obligation."

RABBI MARVIN HIER
DEAN AND FOUNDER
SIMON WIESENTHAL CENTER

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 2:00PM

A compelling memoir of an idyllic childhood in Hungary growing up the daughter of the town's Rabbi. Her life brutally shattered at age 16 when the Nazi's invaded. Eva story of surviving the depths of Auschwitz will challenge and inspire you!

A BOOKSIGNING WILL FOLLOW THE PROGRAM.
NO CHARGE. RESERVATIONS REQUIRED. CALL 310.772.2527
9786 WEST PICO BOULEVARD, LOS ANGELES, CA 90035

WWW.MUSEUMOFTOLERANCE.COM