

Tired of the same run-of-the-mill summer associate activities?

Consider a truly unique experience to impress your summer associates – an evening at the Simon Wiesenthal Center's New York Tolerance Center (NYTC).

The NYTC is conveniently located in the former Daily News building, in the heart of mid-town Manhattan.

Set your firm apart, by offering your summer associates a program that will demonstrate your firm's commitment towards the highest level of personal achievement and social responsibility. The Simon Wiesenthal New York Tolerance Center proudly invites you to step outside of the typical summer associate event for an evening of cocktails, reception and a tour of this state of the art, multi-media educational facility.

Create the perfect event to round out your summer program.
